

FALL AND WINTER, 1872.

The Morning Herald.

Thursday, January 30, 1873.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Letters and other communications intended for publication in the Herald should be addressed to the editor.

Rejected communications cannot be returned unless they can be taken by express communications.

Every letter must be accompanied necessarily for publication, as it is a guarantee of good faith.

In case of inconvenience and delay to persons interested, we have to request that all business communications, including advertisements, be addressed to Blois & Cogswell, and not to the editor.

The Morning Herald Job Printing Office executes every description of printing from a lady's visiting card to a newspaper.

An extensive stock of French, American, English, and Scotch Goods are represented. We are prepared to make up the best possible style and guarantee entire satisfaction by the quality of our fall date is close." That's what makes it so cold.

Burning hydrogen must be very scarce in the sun just now.

Silk is the favorite material for ball dresses this winter.

Notwithstanding the intense cold, yesterday, there were a few trotters out on Main street trying their speed.

Two young men, costumed as jesters or court fools, were yesterday morning distributing hand bills of the Turner Magazine.

Our politicians are not roused with bustness just now, as they saunter along on the shady side of the street and try to keep cool.

We have just passed through a great Arctic wave or a great Arctic wave has just passed through us, we can't exactly tell which.

Every man having a thermometer in good working order, found it very low yesterday morning, particularly when exposed to the open air.

The liquor dealers of Titusville will hold a meeting in Koon's Hall next Monday evening, to take action upon the Local Option movement.

A case of sunstroke was currently reported on the street yesterday, but after diligent inquiry it could not be traced to any reliable source.

The case of the injunction against the Warren & Venango road, which was argued at Meadville Monday and Tuesday, has been adjourned until Tuesday, February 11th.

A man on the Jason farm, in attempting to raise the safety-valve of his engine, accidentally knocked it off, and the rapidly escaping steam burned his arm so badly that amputation will doubtless be necessary.

—February 1st, the Western Union Telegraph Company will reduce the present rates on the California and other points on their line so that there will be no rate over $2 per word.

—The new games have come totally and irredeemably out of fashion; they are not dandied at all in good society. We see them still at balls, but to those sort of people go, and the programme must suit all tastes.

—Robinson's Minstrels, which will "show in this city Saturday evening, is said to be one of the best corps of sable artists traveling. The band is powerfully organized with double quartette, and three tambourines at one end and three "basses" at the other. Whatever is strong in other companies they fail to triplicate, and Rev. Tobias Mullon, D. D., Bishop of Erie, was the Celebrant.

IN THE OIL REGION.

—A new refinery has been erected at the mouth of Dona River, near Titusville.

The new invention for utilizing petroleum for burning purposes at the walls is being put under the boiler at the Birdwell Farm.

—Attention, Citizens! Come!—Regular business meeting to-morrow (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock, sharp. A full attendance is requested.

E. H. PATTERSON, President.

W. G. GREENING, Secretary.

Mrs. M. M. and Mrs. C. H. having satisfactorily settled the preliminaries, will, this evening, in the Skating Rink, announce for the skating championship badge in this city, and a sum of money equal to the value of the badge. When they skated, two weeks ago, for the badge, the Skating Rink was crowded, and as there has been so much talk and discussion of late as to who is the best skater, we presume the Rink will be crowded with spectators this evening.

THE EXTREME COLD.—The thermometer touched thirty-two degrees below zero at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, which is about as low as ever has been known in this locality. The cold is the coldest inhabitant. During the previous night the intensity of the cold caused the frame houses in many parts of the city to contract with a loud report. Hundreds of persons were roused from their slumbers by this noise, but soon got used to it, as the reports succeeded each other at intervals of every few minutes. The external atmosphere was clear and bracing, and in dead calm prevailed.

It was just the kind of night for small boys and silly girls to fight each other with wild and horrid stories; everything looked weird and abominable to those with weak nerves, and to the imagination. An eight weeks in the morning, the thermometer registered twenty-eight degrees below zero, and gradually rose under the influence of the sun, which shone brightly during a portion of the day, to a noon at noon, and ten degrees above at four o'clock. It then suddenly fell to zero by six o'clock last night, and at seven o'clock it registered ten degrees, at which point it remained till midnight.

APPLAUSE.—The editor of the Cory-Bates, who evidently knows a good thing when he sees it, gives us the following comment: "The people of Pittsburg, yesterday, did not come to hand the 6 o'clock mail, but by doing so gave us a better chance and more time to use it. Ordinarily we just drop the mail into the post office, and leave in the mail box, and draw it out, wherever, in the multitude of exchanges, it is never looked at again. But last evening we were gratified to see so much care displayed in the gathering of news. It is just the paper that a country daily newspaper is not, and we are sure that the printer who made it will be highly rewarded."

Henry Rapin.—Charge, assault and battery. Nel. pros. entered on payment of costs.

Elizabeth Thompson—Infirm, nervous, and complainant of a hasty child. The trial of this case occupied the attention of the court for a day and a half, and the jury, after an absence of three and a half hours, returned a verdict of not guilty, whereupon the prisoner was discharged from custody.

John Thompson and Thomas Reiser.—These parties were arraigned upon three indictments for larceny, to each of which the defendant, John Thompson, pleaded guilty.

The defendant, John Thompson, however, pleaded not guilty and went to trial, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty in each case.

Joseph Paton.—Indictment, aggravated assault and battery; not pros. allowed on payment of costs.

Franklin Miller.—Charge, surety of the payment of costs of defendant.

John Jameson.—Charge, surety of the payment; on hearing the Court dismissed the corporal costs of prosecutor.
